

The Fultonian

1940

THE FULTONIAN

CLASS OF '40

DEDICATION

To our parents, teachers, and friends, very dear

We dedicate our book this year,

And we hope that each time this cover they turn

Many happy memories may to them return.

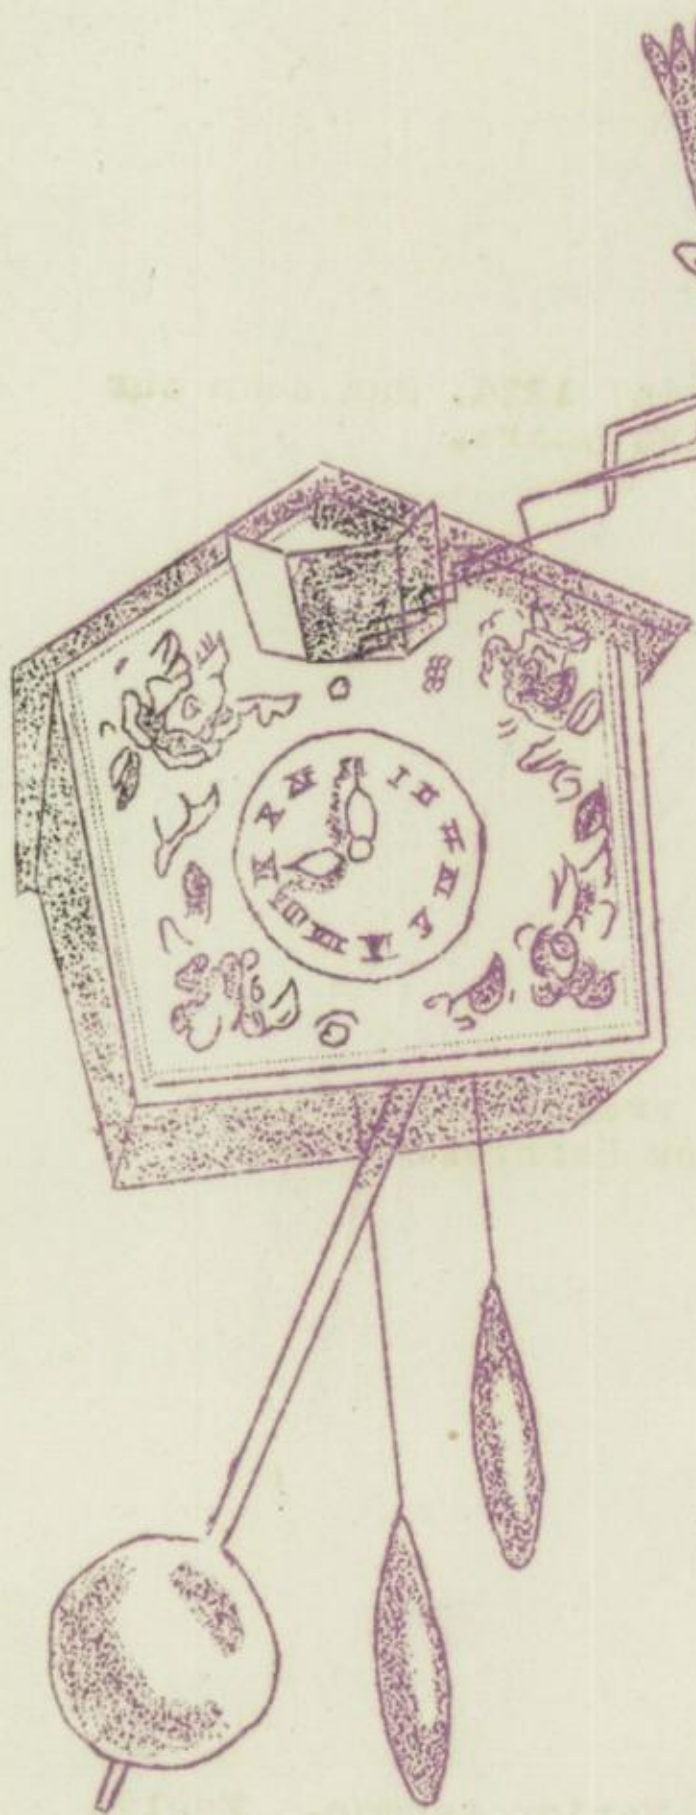

We hope when looking through this book,

You will recall the years it took,

To start at the bottom and go through school,

And learn our lesson--"The Golden Rule."

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1940, sound in mind and body, in full possession of all our faculties, and knowing that our days here are numbered, wish to distribute our possessions as best we know how.

We do hereby leave to the Junior Class our long lockers hoping that they like them better than we do.

We do hereby leave to the Sophomore Class our dignity, patience, and wisdom.

We do hereby leave to the Freshman Class our empty seats in the assembly.

Danny Mohr bequeaths his reckless driving ability to James Bryan.

Florence Johnson wills her ability to blush to Peter Wyckoff.

Jeanette Estel wills her freckles to John David. You won't notice a few more, John.

Lyle George leaves his witticism to Frank Sabo.

Frances Baker wills her curly hair to Fred Bernath.

Helen Poca bequeaths her dancing ability and her dimples to Jeanette Dennis and Marjory Shipman.

Frances Robasser bequeaths all her books and pencils to June Krieger.

James Krieger wills his seat in the Delta theater to Lorraine Manley.

Evelyn Clifton wills her artistic ability to Marvin Herrick.

Keith Babcock wills his bow-ties to Lyle Salsberry.

Wilma Krieger bequeaths her musical talent to Joannette Mizor and Janey Mann.

Florence Rehtine wills her "squealing ability" to Betty Thomas.

Marion Lehman leaves all his love to LaVerne Wise.

Annabelle Brill leaves her sunny disposition to Ruby Johnson and Floyd Perkins.

Frances Baker bequeaths her bashfulness to Hazel Cook and Clarence Krieger, with the hope that it will counteract their incessant chatter.

Herthel Hite wills his "Romeo characteristics" to Lyle Salsberry and Oscar Kandik.

Florence Johnson wills her basketball ability to Helen Griswack.

The Senior Boys bequeath their ability to skip assignments to the Junior Boys.

In witness thereof, we, the class of '40 sign our names.

PROPHECY

It was a beautiful spring day, and I was in the study hall trying to study. I couldn't concentrate. It seemed that the trees in front of the building, with their green foliage, were much more interesting than who was president during the World War.

A slight breeze came up and the leaves began to flutter. I watched them until my eyes grew tired, then I closed them for a moment. Suddenly I seemed to be sailing through the spacious firmament in an aeroplane.

I became dizzy and my head was spinning. The stewardess told everyone to fasten his belt because there was a storm, and the pilot, Jimmy Krieger, was going to land. Jimmy Krieger! Where had I heard of that name before? Oh yes, now I remember. He had been a student back in Fulton.

We made a forced landing, but it was impossible to tell where; the storm was so great. However, it soon cleared and I saw a city in the distance. As the plane was not in condition for flying, I decided to pass the time by going to the city. As I neared it I saw a signboard which read "Los Angeles, 2 miles." Well, there were worse places to be stranded.

As I entered the city, I heard a newsboy shouting "Extra! Extra! Read all about the president's latest act." I called the newsboy to me and lo and behold, he was none other than Danny Mohr, another of the class of '40. His voice really had improved over those days in Physics class when it was impossible to hear him in the back of the room.

I bought a paper and looked at the headlines. They read, "President Lyle George Resists Attack from Mars." Well! Well! Small but mighty, that was Lyle. As I read further I saw that his private secretary, Frances Robasser, had reported this incident. Her commercial course really came in handy.

Next, I turned to the editorial page and there was an article signed, Frances Baker--Editor. So Frances had become editor of a newspaper. Let me see, she was also editor of the "Fultonian", '40. She had a good start.

I put my paper under my arm and went on. I came to a theater and the names "Rechtynne and Hyte" were in lights ten feet high. It seemed they were on a personal appearance tour. I went inside. There were Florence and Herthel. Hollywood Hite had made good his ambition and Florence always did have the looks. Florence told me that Jeanette Estel was acting as her personal maid.

Y0348028

The curtain was falling. A between acts attraction was the appearance of a great concert pianist. She came on the stage and sat down at a grand piano. Everyone applauded. Her face looked familiar, and as she started rippling music like Paderewski, I knew that she was Wilma Krieger. After the show I went backstage to greet her. She told me that Florence Johnson was now the leader of one of the country's most popular accordian bands. Evidently she had exchanged her boyfriend back home for a career.

I left the theater and walked down the street. As I was curious to see more of the class of '40 I gazed around. What met my eyes next was quite a shock to me. Or was it? Hadn't Annie always wanted to be a doctor? Yes, there it was, "Brill and Babcock, M.D." I went to see them and found that they had a very modern and well-equipped office. They told me that they had attended medical school together and had decided to go into the profession as partners.

I bade them adieu and decided to go to a restaurant for lunch. While eating I heard several people talking about visiting the Los Angeles Museum of Art. I decided to spend some time there also. I left the restaurant and started for the museum.

The first thing that struck my eye there was a large portrait of a small girl. It attracted my attention. I walked closer to the drawing. The title of the picture was "My Daughter." I knew that the artist was Evelyn Clifton. The striking resemblance would have told anyone else the same thing. Evidently Evelyn had finally found her P.M.

I, then, thought it would be interesting to visit the seaport, where the boats were coming in. As I neared the wharf I saw a ship that had come from the Hawaiian Islands. As I watched I saw a young man leaving the boat. It was Marion Lehman! I hastened to talk to him. He told me he had joined the navy and had been stationed at Hawaii but was at that time on leave.

I left him and started toward the landing field. The plane had been repaired and brought there. As I approached the field I saw two persons leaving a plane which had just landed. It was Helen Poca with her husband. You remember that former boyfriend. They told me they were on their honeymoon.

Then I boarded my own plane and we took off. It was glorious sailing through the air and--Gong!

That was the bell waking me. I was still in my seat in the study hall. The breeze had gone down and the air was again quiet.

Class History

Twelve years ago we, seniors of Fulton.
Began in different schools to learn
How life treats those who try so hard,
And strive to all their merits earn.

Seven students--Keith Babcock, Annabelle Brill, Evelyn Clifton, Jeanette Estel, Wilma Krieger, Danny Mohr, and Frances Robasser--graduating this year entered school together in 1928. It was this first year we met with Florence Johnson and Helen Poca. Herthel Hite started the third grade with us. When we entered the fifth grade Marion Lehman joined us, and James Krieger entered from Amboy. The following year Lyle George came from Delta.

Miss Luella Christman lead us successfully through our first two years of school. Miss Whiteman helped us get started in the third grade, but she later married. Miss Elnetta Walters finished that year and also taught us in the fourth grade.

Miss Helen Marks was our fifth and sixth grade teacher, and Mr. Marvin Hable taught us in the seventh and eighth grades.

Frances Baker joined us in our ninth year, and Florence Rechtime came the following year.

As Freshmen we were initiated into high school with the usual ceremony. Our class play, "Be Yourself", by Wilbur Braun, was presented by us when we were Juniors. Our outstanding social event was the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held in Dobbin's Tea Room in Adrian, Michigan.

The Senior Class has been represented in the following organizations: the Girl Reserves with Annabelle Brill, president; Evelyn Clifton, president of the Boosters and Scout Scribe in the Girl Scout organization; Wilma Krieger, editor of the Echo; and Frances Baker, editor of the annual.

Various teachers have helped us during our high school years by being our sponsors. Mr. Karnes was our Freshman sponsor; Miss Burkholder, our Sophomore sponsor; and Miss Druckenmiller has lead us the last two years.

SENIOR CLASS DIARY

September 11.

Today started the first day of our last year in Fulton. We have fifteen students.

October 16

We are having our first class party tonight. It is a surprise birthday party on Florence Rehtine. The Senior Class was invited.

November 7

Tonight we are having a class meeting at Florence Johnson's home. We are meeting here to practice for the general assembly which we are going to present tomorrow.

November 8

Today we gave our general assembly. In it we depicted what we were in the first and second grade.

January 10

Tonight we met at Wilma Krieger's home for a class party. We played contact and other party games.

February 6

We did not have regular classes today. A representative of Northland Studio was here to take pictures for our annual.

March 30.

Evelyn Clifton, Frances Baker, Annabelle Brill, Helen Poca, and Wilma Krieger went to Wauseon to participate in the County Senior Scholarship Contest. Evelyn placed sixth in the county. She received 215 points out of a possible 285.

April 6

Wilma Krieger, Evelyn Clifton, and Annabelle Brill visited Defiance College today. While there they took scholarship tests.

April 15

We received our parts for the play. Our play is "Leave It To Mother" by Joyce Andrews.

May 4

We were entertained by the Juniors at the Avery Inn in Wauseon. After the banquet we saw "Tropic Fury" and "Three Cheers For the Irish" at the Princess Theater.

May 10

We gave "Leave It To Mother" tonight.

May 24

Our last day of school. We are happy and, yet, sad.

We Bid Our School Goodbye

Hurrah, and Hurrah, for the dearest school of all!
Hurrah for the classroom, the playground, and the hall!
We hate to leave the scene, where we've spent happy days
And it's oh! with a sigh that we wend our separate ways.

It's Hail and a cheer for the old familiar "High.!"
We've met here today just to say a fond goodbye
To our friends and teachers and our mates we hold so dear,
And it's oh! with a sigh that we say farewell, good cheer.

Abridged from "Commencement Treasury"

SENIORS OF 1940

Say, listen folks, you're going to hear
Not of the "Ride of Paul Revere,"
But, instead, a tale of the Senior Class
Of nineteen forty, each lad and lass.
Fifteen in all, and you must agree
All jokes aside, they're not bad to see.
So if you'll just sit back and relax,
I'll try to tell you some hidden facts
Of this class about to graduate,
One that's been easy to educate.

EVELYN, by name, a studious lass
Is president of this Senior Class,
She greets her classmates with a smile
And a "Delta youth," too, once in a while.

Now if you should suddenly be ill,
Don't forget to call on ANNIE BRILL,
For she plans to be a "Doc" some day
And receive oodles and oodles of pay.

Away to a date in his Ford V-Eight
DANNY is sure to go,
Every Sunday up west, he says "To see Lyle,"
But "We know, don't we? We know."

Should you step into the study hall
Most any time of day,
One lassie you will always find;
Guess her name? Why, FLORENCE J.
A certain Junior you'll see there, too.
Believe it or not, but this is true.

There's FRANCES BAKER, shy and sweet,
Likes studying, but it's more of a treat
To hop on her bike and ride away
With her neighbor, FRANCES, to spend the day.
For they always seem to happy be
When in each other's company.

HERTHEL HITE has high ambitions,
Hence his nickname, "Ho. ywood,"
But, at present, other duties
Take his time, and if you should
Wish a "Sunday Times" to read,
He'll deliver it with speed.

Now HELEN likes to go to school,
But vacation suits her more,
For there's a job awaiting her
And fun and dates galore.

0481 30 2701432

A certain Miss, named WILMA
Likes to study or to play
The piano, 'tis her hobby,
A good one, too, we say.

"The best goods do not always come
In packets large," they say,
If you should be in doubt of this,
You don't know Jimmie K.
Or LYLE G., two witty lads
With lots of repartee;
Good-natured, kind and willing,
Get acquainted, you'll agree.

"I like coffee, I like tea,
I like the boys and the boys like me,"
Says FLORENCE R. with a pleasant smile,
"And I'm date-busy most all the while."

Kind and patient, wise and good,
Always doing what she should.
Apt her services to lend;
On JEANETTE one can depend.

A stalwart youth with wavy hair
Is KEITH, with intellect so rare;
He does not have to study, ever,
And does he fail to answer? Never.

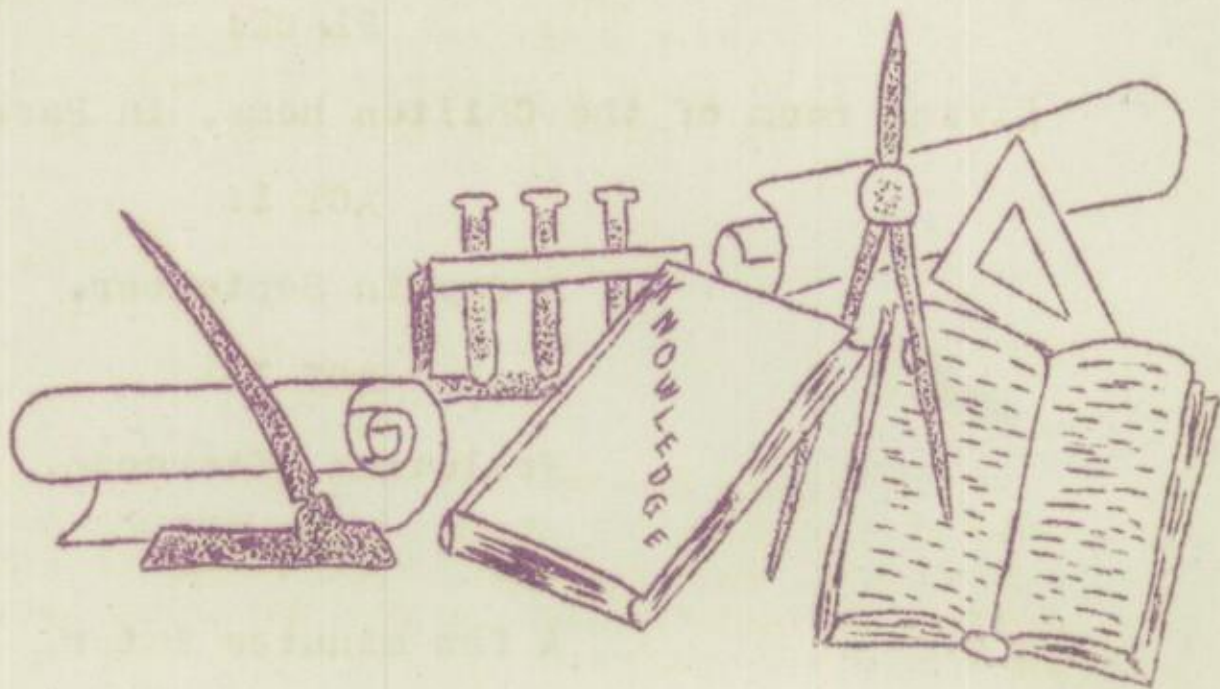

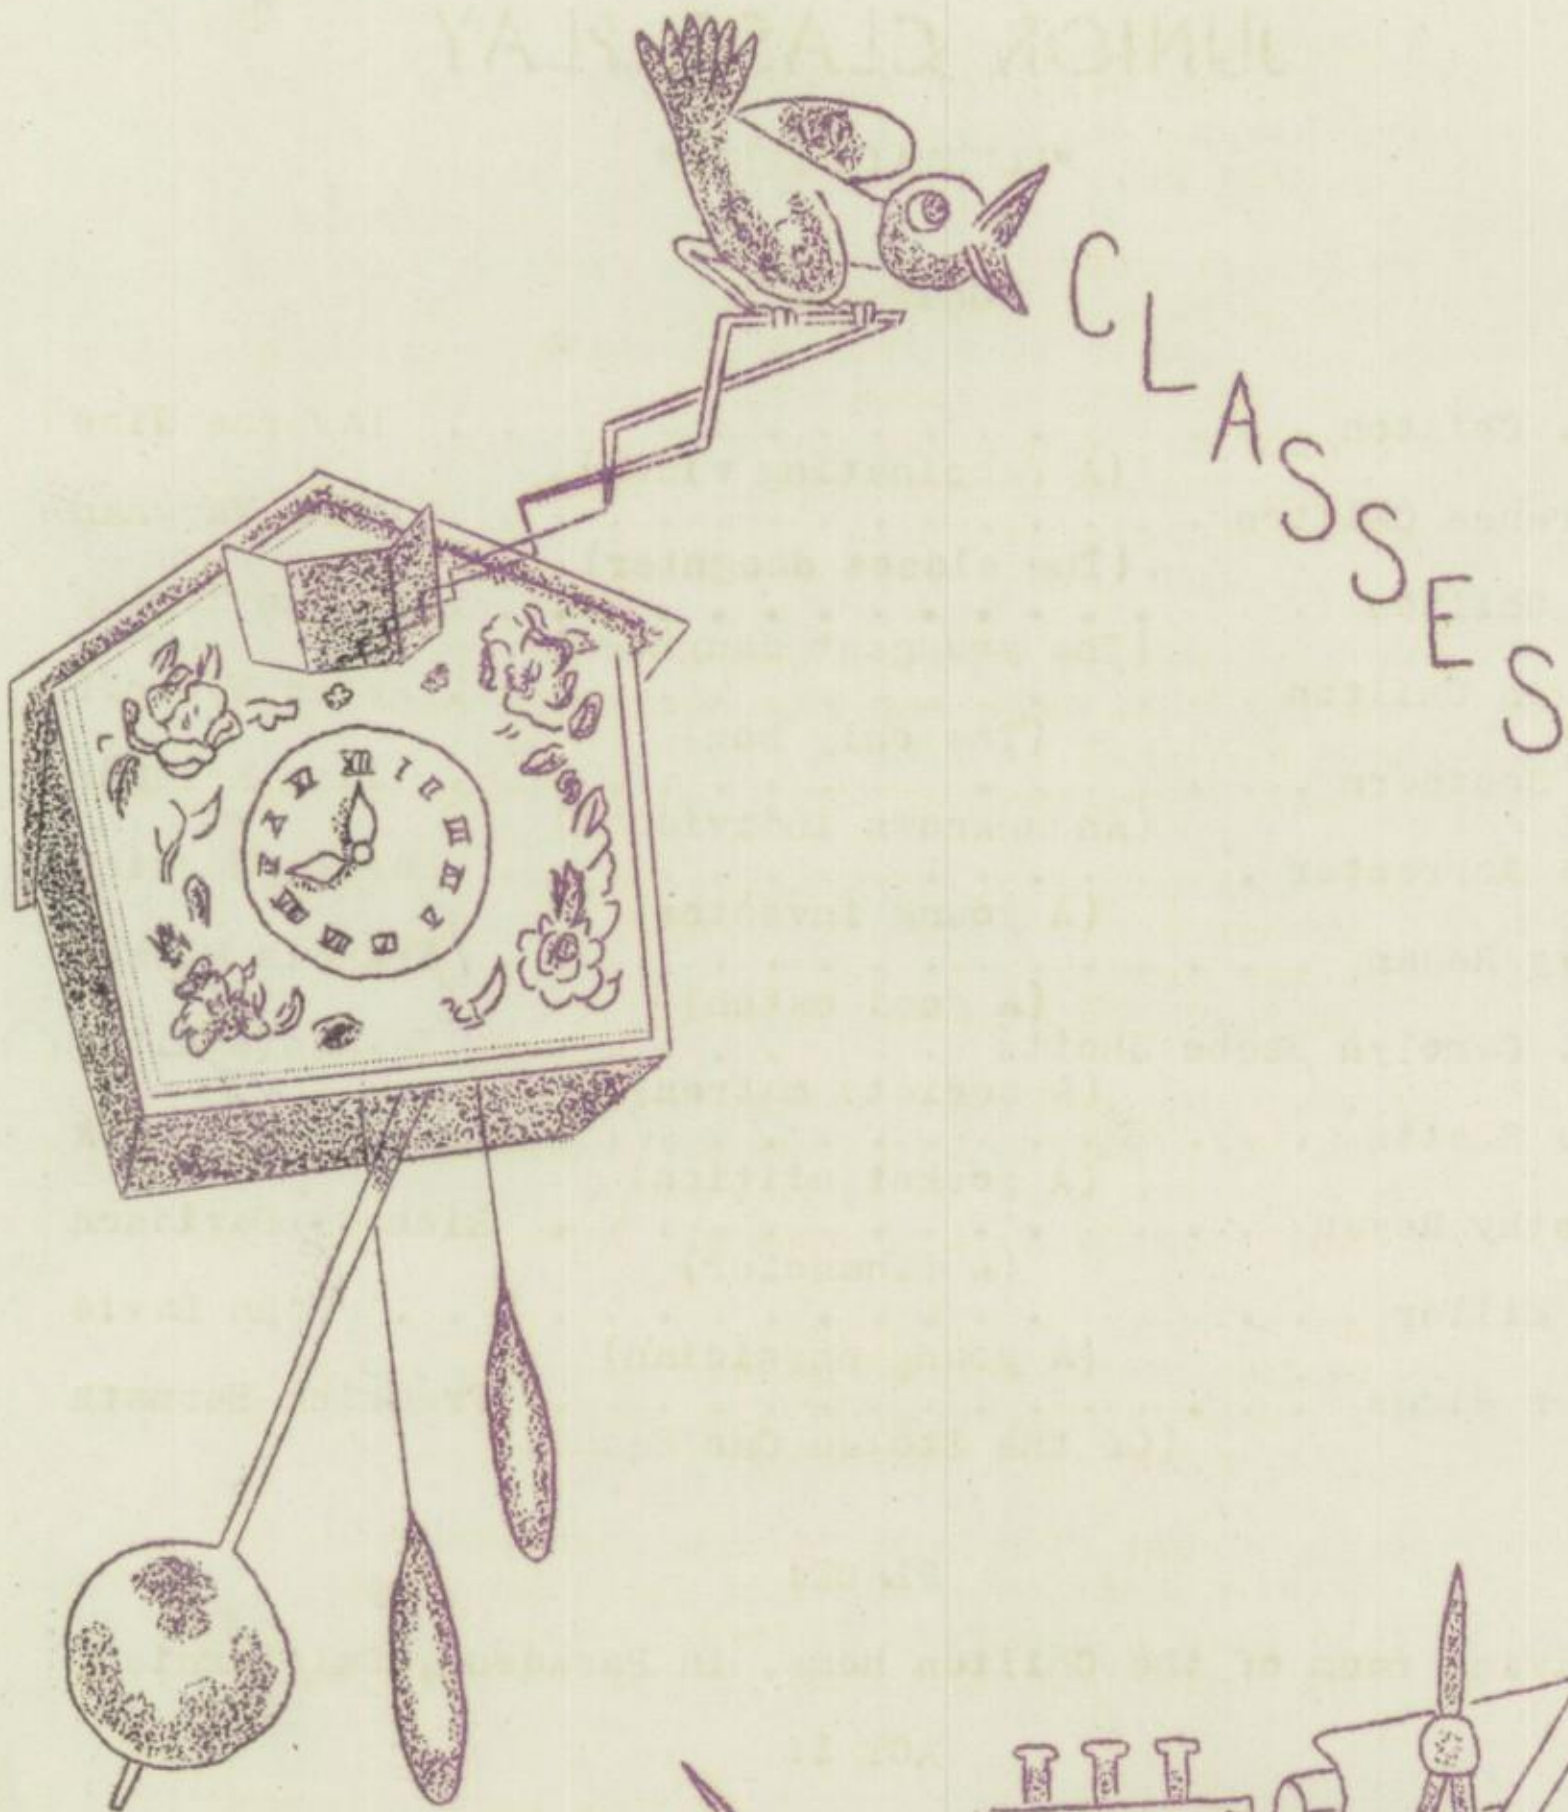

When it came to athletics,
MARION could not be beat,
For when he played upon the team
They never knew defeat.

Well, folks, I'm much obliged to you
For standing by, to hear this through,
It's been a pleasure indeed to tell
The tale of these Seniors you know so well.

Mrs. Opal Robasser

To Miss Druckenmiller, who has been our adviser and leader during our Junior and Senior years, we extend our heartiest thanks for helping us to edit our annual this year. We appreciate your time that you have given to aid us these two years.

ACT I:

A day in September.

ACT II:

Following afternoon.

ACT III:

A few minutes later.

JUNIOR CLASS DIARY

September 18.

One week of school has passed already and there are twenty-five of us this year. That makes us the largest class in the high school this year. We elected Aletha Vaughan, president; Marvin Herrick, vice president; Oscar Kandik, secretary-treasurer; and Laverne Wise, student cabinet member.

September 25.

Betty Thomas was elected secretary of the student body.

October 9.

We selected "Mountain Mumps," by Austin Goetz, for our class play.

November 3.

We were excited all day. This afternoon we gave a matinee performance of our play. Tonight was the climax of all our rehearsals.

January 16.

We sponsored a skating party. Even the Juniors were among those who had minor accidents on the floor.

April 10.

The assembly program was under our direction. Hollywood served as the setting. James Bryan, as guide, lead an imaginary trip to various studios at which members of the class were working.

May 4.

We entertained the Seniors at a banquet. This was our major social event of the year. We spent many hours in preparation for this gala occasion.

"A little fun, to match the sorrow
Of each day's growing--and so, good-morrow!"

SOPHOMORE CLASS DIARY

September 18.

Today we elected our class officers. Janet Babcock was elected president. Other officers elected were Harry Radzimoski, vice president; Florence Perkins, secretary; and Margaret Jewell, treasurer.

October 9.

Lola Mae Roach left our class today. She will attend Swanton High School.

October 15.

We had our first class party. We met at Dream Haven for a weiner roast. Almost all Sophomores met at the top of the hill for an evening of fun.

January 10.

Our class gave the first 1940 assembly. We called it a "Radio" program.

January 24.

Alice Davidson, our cabinet member, moved to Toledo. Alice will attend the girls' vocational school in Toledo.

February 27.

Some of the Sophomore girls played in the basketball game at Delta.

March 1.

Margaret and Ted Winter joined our class. They came from Monclova.

March 20.

We had a theater party tonight in Wauseon. We saw Ginger Rogers in "Fifth Avenue Girl." Afterwards we stopped at Elton's Dairy Store in Swanton.

April 4.

Sophomore girls who take home economics went to an exhibit held at LaSalle and Koch's store in Toledo.

April 25.

We had a weiner roast at Dream Haven.

FRESHMEN DIARY

September 11.

Upon the opening of school we selected class officers as follows: President, Donald Vaughan; Vice President, Jack Dennis; Secretary and Treasurer, Elizabeth Hill; News Reporter, Anna Willson; Cabinet Member, Mary Vaughan; and Advisor, Miss Burkholder.

October 6.

The Freshman initiation took place with the girls wearing their hair in the up sweep style, long dresses, house-slippers, fathers' straw hats with green streamers and plenty of make up, and carrying an umbrella, opening it twice upon the entrance of a room. The boys wore short trousers with their shirt tails cut, house slippers, green scarves tied around their heads and under their chins. They carried women's purses and recipe books. They also were make up.

October 29.

We held a Halloween class party at the home of Russell Merrill. We enjoyed several games in the house, then went outside for a weiner roast and the trimmings. The party ended with a ghost story by Mr. Kroll.

February 7.

Today we gave our assembly program which consisted of a guitar solo, two solos, a duet, a quartet, stunts, a pantomime, and recitations.

February 19.

Several of the Freshmen appeared on the Community Institute program tonight.

April 12.

Barton Manley and Kenneth Robasser played the part of Juliana, the cow, in the operetta. They made their own costume. They, in the role of Juliana, danced in the fair scene.

April 19.

Kenneth Robasser and Russell Merrill sang in the all-county boys' glee club at Delta tonight.

Fulton Hi

Who has ever left Fulton Hi
Without dropping a tear or leaving a sigh?
Who can leave friends, classmates, and the hall,
And lightly forget memories of them all.

Very few students have left it with joy
Whether young people, or just girl or boy.
Very few students have ever gone out
From the dear old school with a gay farewell shout.

Who can forget the two oak trees?
The only shade in our memories.
The lawn, though uneven and rough,
Afford us playground enough.

The first graduates, of nineteen eight,
Left Fulton Hi to meet their fate,
And now nineteen hundred forty's class
Soon out these same doors will pass.

THE GRADES

SEVENTH GRADE DIARY

September 11.

School opened this year with 19 pupils in the seventh grade.

September 14.

Today we organized our class and elected our class officers. Ila Jo Willson was elected president; Freda Shipman, secretary and treasurer; and, Margaret Miller, class reporter.

October 26.

Our first party of the year, a Halloween party, was held tonight at the school house.

December 22.

Today we had a Christmas Party.

February 21.

We began practicing for our general assembly.

March 1.

Margaret Miller transferred to Pike Township School. Dorothy Elton was appointed in Margaret's place as class reporter.

March 6.

We gave our general assembly program today.

May 24.

We are completing this school year with fifteen pupils in our class.

"Truth is the highest thing that man may keep!"

EIGHTH GRADE DIARY

September 11.

School opened this year with nineteen pupils in the 8th grade. Then came the election of our class officers, with Joyce Putman, president; Sidney Shipman, secretary and treasurer; Maxine Hable, news reporter, and Veda Curry, cabinet member.

October 31.

Then came a very enjoyable Halloween party.

November 22.

School was dismissed for Thanksgiving.

December 25.

Christmas and a vacation offered a week of fun.

February 5.

Veda Curry moved to West Virginia, and we elected Nora Jane Vaughan as cabinet member.

February 19.

Several of the students made posters for the Community Institute, and two of them received prizes. Some of the girls took part in the institute program.

April 19.

Today we took the eighth grade state tests.

May 24.

We are completing the school year with 18 pupils in our class.

"Full of fun and mischief, too,
Doing all there is to do."

5TH AND 6TH GRADES

September 11.

This year we have 38 pupils in our room.

October 31.

It is Halloween, and, of course, we had a party. We dressed up in costumes and had a delicious lunch.

November 23.

We have been doing much art work to celebrate Thanksgiving. We had a good dinner at home, too.

During the P. T. A. membership drive, our room won first prize. We made our first public appearance at a P. T. A. meeting when several pupils of the sixth grade exhibited a frieze showing Egyptian life and culture. The fifth grade made their first appearance at a Temperance Assembly. We illustrated several talks written by members of our group.

December 22.

We were excited over our Christmas exchange. We tried to conceal our gifts and to keep from knowing our gifts before they were opened. Santa Claus visited our room and surprised us with another gift.

February 14.

We exchanged valentines and had a little party. Several of us had learned Valentine poems which we presented for a short program.

February 19.

One of the most important appearances we made was at the Community Institute. We gave a play, "A Dream of George Washington," and a minuet danced by twelve pupils from both grades.

April 12.

Several pupils from our room took part in the operetta, "The Giant Beanstalk." Donald Forrest and James Boyne took the parts of Captain Kidd and Foolemisi. The rest of us took part in the chorus.

May 24.

We are very sorry school is closing but we hope to all meet again next year, a grade higher and a wee bit older.

3RD & 4TH GRADE DIARY

September 16.

Couldn't imagine at first why Mom was making me get up so early last Monday; then I remembered that all those red and yellow leaves must be a sign of autumn and the first day of school. Thirty-seven of us this year--Don Shipman is back. Don't like to be a crab, but this weather is hotter than last August. We have been spending all our time at the water fountain or under a shade tree.

October 17.

First P. T. A. meeting and we made our first public appearance for this year. We were told that we won second prize in the membership drive.

December 22.

Santa Claus. dropped in a minute today and left us some candy. Just think, soon it will be 1940 and it seems only yesterday that we were having our Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving Day parties! Everyone took part in the Christmas pageant last night. Clara Osterhout has moved to Delta; new pupils who have moved in are Lois Ryder, Louise Ryder, and Laura Smoot.

February 19.

We helped with the Community Institute program this morning. Ruby Moore, Stanley Radzimoski, and Viola Wise won the poster prizes. Billy Vaughan is moving to Swanton the first of March. Some of us were playing ball today; just think, one month ago at this time we were having the coldest weather of the year.

March 11.

Spring is here! Just time to write a last few notes before I put this diary away and go out to jump rope. Jack Mizer has the leading role in the operetta which the first six grades are presenting. The rest of us are in it too. Dolores Schmitz has moved into our school district; there are thirty-nine pupils in our room now.

1ST & 2ND GRADE DIARY

September 11.

School opened today. We started off the year with 18 second graders and 17 first graders.

October 27.

We had a Halloween party. We made false faces from paper sacks and tried to scare the third and fourth grades.

November 16.

Jo Ann Matzinger left for Florida. We all wished we could go with her. We also got another first grader.

November 22.

Today we were dismissed from school for our Thanksgiving vacation.

December 22.

We had a lot of fun making three big stained glass windows for our room. Our Christmas party was made perfect by a surprise visit from Santa Claus.

January 2.

Happy New Year! We are still busy with our school work.

February 19-20.

Our toy band played two selections for Community Institute "The Merry Farmer," and "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be." Of course we all received many valentines at our party.

March 24.

What a long cold month! We had a pleasant Easter party, even if the weather wasn't like Easter.

April 20.

We are finding many signs of spring. We built a farm in our sandbox.

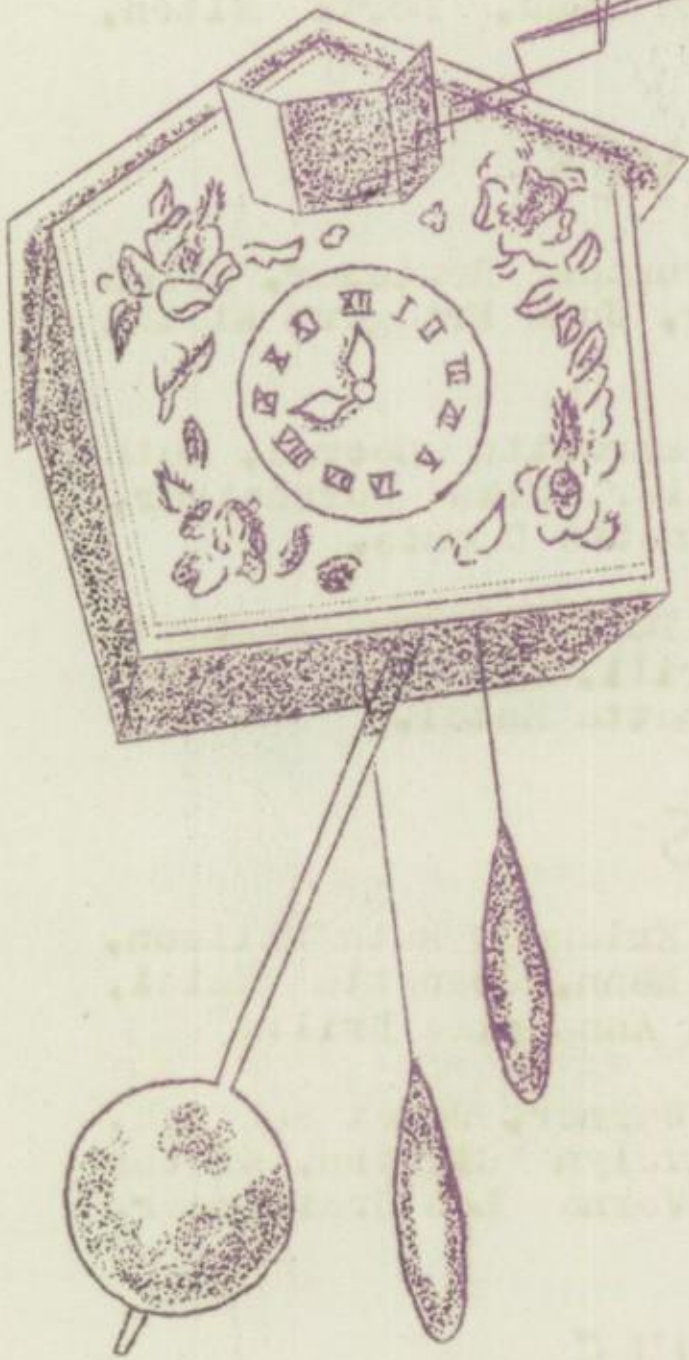

May 24.

School was out today! Some of us were not so glad but most of us were.

Mother Advisors

The Girl Reserves is one of the active clubs of Fulton High School. The club consists of twenty-four members whose purpose in life is to find and give the best. Our slogan is to face life squarely.

The club had interesting programs this year based on cooperation, movies, etiquette, music, hobbies, social relationships, health, and vocations.

The Girl Reserves conducted a chapel program in which they gave a church service in the style that the early Puritans used.

On November 13, 1939, they held their annual recognition service at the school building. It was a simple candle-light service in which the five new girls pledged to do their best to honor God, their country, and their community; to help other girls; and to be in all ways loyal and true members of the Girl Reserves.

The girls served lunches in the cafeteria and had several bake sales as a means of making money for a vacation at the lake this summer.

They had a Christmas party at the home of Helen Griswack and, also, a Mother's Tea and Senior Farewell at the school building.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts have twenty-two members. During this year our captain has been Miss Elnetta Walters and lieutenant, Miss Virginia Koons.

We have had several popcorn and candy sales during the year.

We gave the Boy Scouts a Halloween Party at the home of Joyce Putman. As is customary, we again went Christmas caroling. We had a Christmas party at the home of Mary Lou Mohr. Another party, Ai night at the skating rink, proved very entertaining.

Our program this year has chiefly concerned the fields: "Homemaking," "Music," "Stars," "Insects," and "International Friendship."

The Girl Scouts conducted the chapel program on January 19.

We also sponsored an Ai Night at the skating rink which proved very successful.

BOOSTERS

The Boosters Club was organized last fall and elected Evelyn Clifton, president; Aletha Vaughan, vice president; Meredith George, secretary; and Betty Thomas, treasurer.

Through the campaigning of some of the old members, we have a record membership this year of 21 members.

About the middle of November the Boosters asked Mr. Bodenbender to ask the Board of Education if they would permit the group to sponsor a bus to take students who wished to attend the basketball games. Permission to take the bus was granted. The Boosters were very much pleased with this decision.

Our Boosters Club aims to promote good sportsmanship and boost all school activities, especially, the basketball team.

The organization gave the boys a banquet at which they received their letters.

BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scouts of America--Troop 225--Ai, Ohio.

The Fulton School P. T. A. again sponsors the troop. Troop Committeemen are Rev. C. I. Lau, Chairman and Chaplain; Mr. Robert Wilson, Secretary and Treasurer and Educational member; Mr. Arnold Cook, Educational member; Mr. Raymond Merrill and Mr. Harley Turpening, Activity Members. Our Scoutmaster is now Dale Wentz. Assistant Scoutmasters are Lyle George and James Willson.

These are the junior officers for the troop: Russell Merrill, Scribe; Richard Griesinger, Blazing Arrow Patrol Leader and Quartermaster; Barton Manley, Frontiersman Patrol Leader; and Kenneth Robasser, Indian Patrol Leader.

The following are other members of the troop: Blazing Arrow Patrol--Marvin Donnelly, Donald Vaughan, and Richard Walters. Frontiersman Patrol--Stanley Cook and Junior Hable. Indian Patrol--Leonard Thomas, James Boyne, Melvin Hanley, Harold Galbraith and Donald Hite.

A new idea was tried in 1939. An Explorer unit was organized from the young men of the troop--Scouts 15 years old or over and First Class, under the leadership of the Scoutmaster. Members of the unit are Lyle George, Herthel Hite, Marion Lehman, Floyd Perkins, and James Willson. Our hats off to three Seniors--Lyle George, Herthel Hite, and Marion Lehman with 4, 5, and 6 years Scout service respectively--for their loyalty to the Troop and Boy Scout work throughout their Junior and Senior High School career.

Some of the highlights of the last year's activities in which Scouts participated are

Boy Scout Week Activities,
Program and Display for Community Institute,
First Annual Scout-Parent Banquet,
June Field Meet--Libbey Stadium, Toledo, Ohio,
Camp Miakonda, Camping,
Silica Park, Swimming,
Fourth of July Parade and First Aid Duty,
Visit to Toledo Zoo,
Attendance at Toledo Court of Honor in September,
Guests of Girl Scout's Halloween Party,
Ushered for Ohio State-Cornell Football Game,
and Troop Meetings, Patrol Meetings and Hikes.

You are going to see a lot of Boy Scouts and their activities from now on. Just watch us.

GLEE CLUBS

This past school year the boys' and girls' glee clubs have spent many pleasant moments singing. Mr. Kroll assisted Miss Burkholder with the boys.

The glee clubs appeared in several programs during the year. In the Christmas pageant, "A Star in the Sky," the glee clubs sang. They, also, participated in the Community Institute and chapel programs.

The boys sang at a P. T. A. program and at the Scout Week Service. The girls sang at the Good Friday services at Ai Church.

Many weeks were spent preparing songs for the Spring Music Festival which was held April 19, 1940, in the Delta school auditorium.

OPERETTA

"The Magic Beanstalk," an operetta in three acts, by Hubrich and Christopher, was presented Friday evening, April 12, 1940.

An English Village Green and a Fair were the settings for the story of Jack and the Beanstalk. The first six grades presented the operetta under the direction of Miss Burkholder. Miss Wilma Krieger was the accompanist.

ANNUAL STAFF

The "Fultonian" this year was edited by the Senior Class of 1940. Frances Baker was selected editor of the yearbook; Frances Robasser, assistant editor; and Lyle George as the business manager. The remaining students in the class spent their spare time working on the annual, in work which they could do the best.

This year's annual has many new ideas in it. We can attribute these to each individual on the annual staff for they all gave new and interesting suggestions toward the success of our yearbook.

ECHO STAFF

Our school paper, "The Echo," has been published for ten years. This year it was edited under the supervision of a journalism class for the first time. It was published bimonthly, making eighteen editions which the class put forth this year.

A small, selected group of students formed this new class and the work on the paper was limited to class periods. This group endeavored to bring variety to our paper and to approximate the true newspaper style as much as possible. Considerable time was devoted to the study and analysis of modern newspapers and their construction.

The editor was Wilma Krieger and the assistant editor was Lorraine Manley. Other class members were LaVerne Wise, feature editor; Peter Wyckoff, business manager; and Evelyn Clifton, the artist. Another group of students who submitted articles in addition to that of the Journalism students were the class reporters. They were Freshman, Anna Willson; Sophomore, Ruth Willson; Junior, June Krieger; Seventh, Dorothy Elton; and Eighth, Maxine Hable.

The teacher of journalism was Mr. Wilson, who guided us patiently in publishing "The Echo."

GIRLS' SPORTS

In the fall the girls played baseball and speedball on the playground. Betty Thomas, Florence Johnson, and Phyllis Donnelly were chosen as squad leaders for the year.

The popular indoor sports were basketball and volleyball. Two basketball teams were selected to play the preliminary game the night of the Varsity-Alumni game.

On February 5, a team played basketball with the girls of Delta High School. The score was 38-22, in Fulton's favor. The girls played at Delta, February 27, with the scores as follows: Freshmen-Sophomores 7-8, the Juniors-Seniors 17-18, in Delta's favor.

In March the girls held a class basketball tournament. The Junior girls were the winners, and the Senior girls were second.

Alumnae, teachers, and high school girls participated in a play night. During the evening basketball and volleyball were played.

Ping pong attracted many girls during gym class and during the noon hour. Hazel Cook won the tournament which climaxed the season.

BOYS' SPORTS

At the beginning of the school term we began training by playing touch football. Later when we came into the gym, we had tryouts for basketball. Fifteen boys came out for basketball this year. The teams were given new suits and jackets.

Although we entered in the general tournament at Wauseon this year, we did not succeed in winning. Pettisville was the winner; Archbold was runner-up; Delta won the consolation; Fulton re-claimed the sportsmanship trophy.

We started baseball practice in March with Mr. William F. Kroll as coach. The school bought new baseball equipment. The suits were red and gray. The players bought six new bats, with the agreement that they would receive them at the end of the season.

On April 13, 1940, a banquet was given by the Boosters in honor of the basketball and baseball boys.

SOCIAL

P. T. A.

President
Vice President
Secretary
Treasurer

Mr. William Roberts
Mr. Raymond Merrill
Miss Thelma Luke
Mrs. Mabel Mohr

This year the teachers and patrons of the school held monthly meetings, with Mrs. Ralph Krieger as chairman of the Program Committee.

At the first meeting the grades gave the program. Rev. Clark De Muth, of Mt. Pleasant Church, spoke at the November meeting.

The December meeting was devoted to the Christmas program. The community churches and the school presented the Christmas pageant, "A Star in the Sky."

Mr. Grubbs and Mrs. Noland, the Community Institute speakers, were guests at the February meeting.

An Easter program was presented by the three organizations, Girl Reserves, Girl Scouts, and the Boy Scouts, at the April meeting. The P. T. A. voted this year at one of their meetings that they would sponsor the three organizations.

The school cafeteria was a beneficial project of the year. Mrs. Samuel Warner, Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan, Mrs. Chas. Keller, Mrs. Ronald Hable, Mrs. Paul Manley, and Mrs. D. P. Bodenbender served on the lunch committee. The new kitchen equipment improved the service of the cafeteria.

BOX SOCIAL

On April 16 the Parent-Teacher's Association sponsored a box social for the benefit of the Girl Reserve, Girl Scout, and Boy Scout organizations. Simon Bernath was the auctioneer for the event. A moving picture and the community orchestra provided entertainment for the beginning of the evening. The whole community was invited and a good attendance was present.

COMMUNITY INSTITUTE

President	Mr. Russell Cole
Vice President	Mr. Roger Cook
Secretary & Treasurer	Mr. Grant Lawrence
Hostess	Mrs. D. P. Bodenbender

The Fulton Community Institute opened on February 19th. The state speakers were Mrs. Everett Noland, Hanover, Ohio, and Mr. P. E. Grubb, from Johnstown, Ohio.

Mrs. Noland gave us some interesting ideas on "Making Your Habits Your Friends", "This Younger Generation", "Homes or Just Houses", and "Just Between Neighbors".

Mr. Grubb gave some good pointers on "The Cost and Value of Education", "Spending Our Dollars with Sense", "Scenes From the Southland", and "Going Ahead in 1940".

The poster prizes were awarded to the following students in the high school: Verna Lou Greisinger, first prize; Aletha Vaughan, second; and Ruby Johnson, third.

The Junior Hi awards went to Patsy Merrill, first prize; Joyce Putman, second; and Nora Jane Vaughan, third.

The grade awards were given to Ruby Mohr, first prize; Stanley Radzimoski, second; and Viola Mae Wise, third. The Institute was closed February 20, 1940.

Officers for the year 1941 were elected during the Tuesday afternoon session. Roger Cook was elected president; Grant Lawrence, vice president; Earl Cook, secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Paul Manley, hostess.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

One of the most delightful and enduring memories which the Class of '40 will carry from school will be the Junior-Senior Banquet. The pleasant affair took place on Saturday evening, May 4. At 7:30 o'clock, a dinner was served in the Avery Inn, Wauseon, Ohio. The Juniors carried out the Senior colors, purple and gold, in the decorating of the room.

After the dinner, LaVerne Wise welcomed the Senior class, to which Evelyn Clifton, president of the Senior class, gave the response. Mr. Kroll, Mr. Bodenbender, and Miss Druckenmiller gave toasts. Special numbers were given by Jeanette Mizer, June Krieger, and Peter Wyckoff, followed by the reading of the Class Prophecy and Will. Marwin Herrick was master of ceremonies. The guests then attended the Princess Theater. "Tropic Fury" and "Three Cheers for the Irish" were the movie attractions.
